

HDMI cable with 90° connectors

SKU: ECVHDMI2X90MM30

High-speed ferrite cable with Type A male gold-plated connectors for Ethernet connection, supports 4K Ultra HD resolution, 3m long

This HDMI cable has practical Type A male connectors at a 90° angle. Thanks to this feature, they can adapt to the space and arrangement of your devices. This is also made possible by the anti-kink protection.

The cable supports 4K Ultra HD resolution: the signal transmission between devices is always optimal and the audio/video performance is excellent.

It is possible to connect different types of devices to each other: flat TVs, projectors or amplifiers to DVD players, decoders or gaming consoles.

The gold-plated connectors also have an Ethernet function, i.e. it is possible to share an internet connection between several devices.
